

POET

for immediate release

JANUARY 2023

Fresh appeal with a sense of timelessness.

Poet takes cues from the residential category, embracing modern trends of relaxed comfort and natural styling with lasting design details.

Charming good looks.

With Poet, you get the choice of two distinct design styles. Poet Peb takes on a rounded, more organic nature while Poet Cube presents a more rectilinear, tailored shape. Complement either cushion style with the dowel wood foot or architectural metal foot for two completely new looks.

A creative spirit with timeless fundamentals.

Configure unique set ups with Poet's wide variety of modular components. Pair with modular or freestanding tables for added functionality and finesse. Incorporate privacy units that offer opportunities for independent solitude and reserved collaboration. Keep looks artfully subdued or add in an element of energy with a multitude of material selections.

Poet is a lounge and table collection designed by Qdesign and is available to order.
