JSI WELCOMES DOUG SHAPIRO AS NEW VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES

JASPER, Ind., JULY 26, 2024 – JSI is thrilled to announce the appointment of Doug Shapiro as Vice President of Sales. With extensive industry experience and a forward-thinking vision, Doug is set to bring exciting new opportunities and perspectives to the brand.

Shapiro's decision to join JSI was significantly influenced by the purpose and values of the company. JSI's commitment to creating a business based on humility and kindness that supports future generations resonated deeply with Doug, aligning perfectly with his own professional ethos. With a rich heritage of craftsmanship and innovation dating back to 1876, JSI's dedication to sustainability and community-driven practices continues to inspire and drive its mission.

"I am very honored to join JSI and be part of a company that not only values exceptional design and craft but also prioritizes the people and community around us," said Doug Shapiro. "The opportunity for growth and collaboration with such a talented team is something I am very excited about. Together, we will continue to build on an incredibly strong foundation and drive JSI to new heights."

Mike Wagner, President and CEO of JSI, added, "Doug's leadership skills, cultural compatibility, and reputation as a thought leader in the design community make him an ideal fit for our VP of Sales role. His passion for collective work to foster innovation and ideation further solidifies our dedication to our core values."

At JSI, we continue to take pride in our legacy of craftsmanship and exceptional service, pushing the boundaries through innovation and a genuine passion for our work. We are confident that Doug's expertise will enhance our ability to meet our customers' evolving needs, expand our market presence, and continue to impact places and spaces by inspiring people to love what they do.
