"Inspiration for the DoubleTree Charlotte guest rooms came from the history and culture of Charlotte itself. Named for Queen Charlotte, wife of England's King George III, it was a major hub of one of the original Thirteen Colonies. Presently, Charlotte has had a renaissance due to rapid growth over the past decade, and the guest rooms reflect the fresh and forward thinking city with a contemporary design that provides a relaxing yet upscale overnight stay. Unpretentious comfortable luxury was the goal, using a modern mix of dark textured wood and white quartz topped casegoods, for a warm and inviting environment without being too formal. Klem was not only able to meet our budget in achieving these results, but simply stated, was easy to work with."

DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel Charlotte

1 & 6. The unaccompanied credenza presents a distinguished welcome to guests upon exiting any elevator. Masterfully crafted by hand, the seamless joinery of wood on wood and clear finish accentuates the natural tones and texture. 2. Grandly scaled headboards for the king guest rooms are finished in a dark espresso that displays the grain pattern with elegance and upholstery to bring a relaxed tone and softness. 3. The ergonomic desk-dresser-fridge console mirrors the headboards and nightstands across the room. Carefully selected quartz top surfaces add a chic contemporary element to every room. 4. Each room not only offers a stylish atmosphere, but creates a compelling space for work and/or relaxation. 5. Double headboards are separated by a sleek non-handled nightstand with quartz top surface that pairs perfectly for a pleasing aesthetic and durability.

COVER Guest rooms provide ergonomic work spaces with custom desk-dresser-fridge consoles that incorporate a handcrafted veneer-upholstery panel combination. All furniture uses solid wood construction and is manufactured and assembled within the United States.

KLEM worked hand in hand with some of the industry's most highly regarded firms to supply unique products for this contemporary, upscale hotel. Taking ideas and sketches from concept to fruition, maintaining a reasonable price point and upholding the intended design concept, was key to the overall success.

SCOPE Supplied casegoods for 187 guest rooms and common areas. All product was custom designed and manufactured within the United States. PRODUCT Headboards, nightstands, desk-dresser-fridge units and buffet credenzas.
